Re: National News Council

Dear Justice Traynor:

I read with a great deal of interest and approval an article appearing in the Fresno Bee July 8, 1973, concerning your being chairman of the above-named council. I have been among those who are greatly concerned over the increasing failure of those in the news media to realize the tremendous responsibility that goes with the unbridled freedom enjoyed by news media.

I hope your organization will eventually succeed in causing the news media to be more responsible and fair for its own good, as well as for society in general.

Very truly yours,

BLAINE PETTITT
